cpp DirectAlert™

The knowledge you need to make sure your credit report is right. And the power to keep it right.

Member Login

Welcome to DirectAlert™ — the service that helps you protect the information that matters.

Your credit report is an ever-changing document that affects your bank loans, mortgages, credit cards, and other lines of credit. It also affects your payment history, along with any outstanding balances or judgments against you.

Perhaps more importantly, your credit report may be seen and evaluated by lenders, risk officers, landlords, employers, and others who will make decisions about you based on what they see.

With DirectAlert, you get convenient access to personal facts that help you keep an eye on your credit report — and more.

Did You Know?

The FICO® score you see on your credit report is just one of the many factors that lenders use to make decisions about you. It's not the only one.

With DirectAlert, you get convenient access to personal facts that help you keep an eye on your credit report — and more.
